"Soul Poverty"
Prov. 24: 33-34

"A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep, so shall your poverty come as one who travels and your need like an armed man."

The worst of sluggards only ask for a little slumber. They would be indignant if they were accused of complete idleness. A little folding of the hands to sleep is all they desire and they have a number of reasons to show that this indulgence is a very proper one. Yet by these littles that they ebb out and the time for labor is all gone and the field is grown over with thorns. It is by little procrastinations that men ruin their souls. They have no intention to delay for years–a few months will bring the more convenient season–tomorrow if you will they will attend a serious thing but the present hour is so occupied and altogether so unsuitable that they begged to be excused. Like sands from the hour glass, time passes and life is wasted by driblets and seasons of Grace are lost by little slumbers. Oh to be wise to catch the flying hour to use the moments that are on the wing!

May the Lord teach us this sacred wisdom for otherwise poverty of the worst sort awaits us. Eternal poverty which shall want even a drop of water and beg for it in vain. Like a traveler steadily pursuing his journey, poverty will overtake you and ruin will overthrow you. Each hour brings the dreaded pursuer nearer. He pauses not by the way for he is on the Masters business and must not tarry. As an armed man enters with authority and power so shall want come to the idle and death to the impenitent, and there will be no escape. Oh that men were wise before it is too late; and would seek diligently unto the Lord Jesus now before the solemn day shall dawn when it will be too late to plow and sow, too late to repent and believe. In harvest it is vain to lament that the seed time was neglected. And yet faith and holy decision are timely.

May we obtain them this day.

APPINGHAM

'In company, guard your tongue; in solitude, your heart. Our words need watching: but so also do our thoughts and imaginations, which grow most active when we are alone.

Spurgeon

This writer is very pleased and feels honored that W. W. Loveday has chosen 'Appingham' as the name for his softball team. The Toga team was formerly called by this name but was changed. We wish the 'Appingham' team the very best of luck and offer them complete coverage in this column.

The softball tournament due to begin last Friday at Toga Community Center's field was delayed until Sunday because of rain and a muddy field. Those playing on Sunday were: First game, Solite - Junkyard Gang; 2nd, Toga Vol. Fire Dept.-Maysville; Appingham - Coca Cola; 4th game -Maysville - Solite; 5th, Coca Cola - James River Pirates.

A case of coca-cola was promised to anyone hitting a clear home run with approximately 10 being presented.

This tournament will continue this weekend with a winners trophy and runners up trophy being presented on Sunday.

Everyone is invited to attend. A concession stand serving hot dogs, sandwiches, drinks, sno cones etc. is open on the premises.

Anyone wishing to become a member of Toga Community Center Inc. may contact Bobbie Gowin, 'Skip' Hoag or any of the board of directors for needed information.

Get well wishes are extended to Joseph Moore who has returned home from the hospital and to Mrs. Ella Gray Price who is hospitalized in Charlottesville.

Mrs. Vinia Kress and Mrs. Hazel Johnson were visitors of Mrs. Nellie Gillette on Thursday.

The Youth Choir of Pleasant Grove Church will make their first public appearance on September 30, 1973. All of the people between 12 and 20 wishing to take part are asked to be present this Sunday for the final practice before their appearance. Those not present for practice will not be included.

The Sunday School picnic for Pleasant Grove will be on September 30 services for this day will be as follows: Sunday School - 10:00 a.m.; Morning Church - 11:00 a.m.; Picnic - 12:00 noon.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Gunter and girls visited Mrs. Vinia Kress and Mr. and Mrs. Willie Woodson during the weekend.

The P. M. Gunter family is very pleased that, out of 6 entries at the fair, 5 ribbons were won consisting of 2 first place ribbons, 1 second place, 1 third place and 1 fifth place.

ing as marketing manager, building products sales, since 1970.

Foster joined Thomasville in 1971 and has been responsible for the styling and design development of the Caldwell line and, this season, of the Huntley line. He is a graduate of Northwestern University and for a number of years was associated with Barker Manufacturing Company in Portland, Oregon where he was responsible for marketing and merchandising of that furniture company's product line.

Spotlighting Law Strengthened

The Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries would like to acquaint all hunters, as well as those who enjoy watching deer, with a new addition to the game laws. The new law (29-144.4 b) is concerned with the use of automobile lights, spotlights and other lights, and generally prohibits their use off the roadway after 10 p.m. from Oct. 1 to Mar. 31. The new law reads as follows.

Any person in any motor vehicle who, between 10 p.m. on any day and a half hour before sunrise the following day, between October 1 and March 31, deliberately employs a light attached to such vehicle or a spotlight or flashlight to cast a light beyond the surface of the roadway upon any place used by deer or elk, except upon his own land or upon private land on which he has permission, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, every person in or on any such vehicle shall be deemed prima facie a principal in the second degree and subject to the same punishment as a principal in the first degree. Any person who violates this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $150 or by confinement in jail for not more than 10 days or both such fine and imprisonment.

By His Spirit

Written By William L. Barclay
In My Morning Devotional Book - Labeled Rehearsal - Then - Action

And when they were come, and gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles. Acts 14:27.

The first missionary journey to the Gentiles was over. Paul and Barnabas were back in Antioch, the town from which the Holy Spirit had sent them on their mission.

Eagerly the brethren gathered in the church to hear what the disciples had to report. What a thrilling report it was! Luke stated that "they rehearsed all that God had done with them." It was an address all who will hear. The Holy Spirit will lead us. Leonard Webb points the way in his poem. "Share Your Faith" "Share your faith O Advent Youth - Its blessing to bestow; -By sharing with some one you'll see your own faith grow "Share your faith, O Advent youth; Man's faith hath failed him so, Your faith will meet Men's greatest need, And cave men from its woe. "Share your faith, O Advent youth, You're destined for this hour! Go forth to speak of Jesus' love and tell of His mighty power!"

Donald L. Tomlin

Promoted

On August 16th Donald L. Tomlin was advanced to Chief Petty Officer in the United States Navy. Cheif Tomlin actually "put on the hat" and obtained the rights and privileges of a Cheif Petty Officer on March 11, 1973, however due to a shortage of funds he was not paid for the new rate until August. The policy of advancing without pay is commonly called "frocking" in the Navy.

Chief Petty Officer Tomlin, stepson of E. T. Layne of Appomattox, joined the Navy in January 1962. Since coming on active duty he has served at a wide variety of duty stations including Navy Facilities in Argentia, Newfoundland, Nantucket, Massachusetts, S a n Salvador, Bahamas and Kefla vik, Iceland. In addition he has had three tours in Key West, Florida attending Navy Schools in advanced electronics and one afloat tour aboard the USS Beverly W. REID (LPR-119). The new chief is presently stationed at the Navy Facility in Coos Bay, Oregon as Assistant Electronics Material Officer.

Chief Tomlin is married to the former Ann Lewis of Appomattox, and they have a 14 month old son, Donald L. (Jr.) who keeps them extremely busy. In his off duty time Chief Tomlin enjoys flying and holds a commercial pilots license, a third class FCC license and is also an avid hunter.

gation is expanding its facilities and service and my congratulations to the Rev. Earnie Lucas and his workers.

In truth, I do not require an alarm clock. Habit takes care of when to get up. In my case it is seven A. M. But, heavens to Betsy, for some mornings now, at five minutes to seven, a bird knocks loudly outside my bedroom wall. Unseen to identify as to species, he delivers his message. In Edgar Allen Poe's immortal poem, The Raven, the message was "Nevermore." In this case I can announce that I have deciphered the code, a pecking morse code which translates to: "Arise & Shine."

ment. He was serving as a foreman prior to this most recent assignment.

Moore, a former foreman in the machine shop, has been named an engineer with tooling and application.

Born in Appomattox, County, Va., Moore is a 1958 graduate of Appomattox County High School. He joined B&W in April, 1956 as an assistant nuclear technician with the firm's naval nuclear fuel division. He became a group leader in 1962, and in 1968 was transferred to the commercial nuclear fuel plant as a group supervisor. He had been serving as a machine shop foreman since 1971.

Moore holds two U.S. patents for an automated fuel rod welding machine and a fuel rod pellet loading device.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley F. Moore, Route #3, Appomattox, Va., and is married to the former Norma Hillsman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond J. Hillsman, Route #4, Appomattox, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore have three children, Marlene, 13; Lisa, 11; and Angela.

Shy, who is a former senior technician, has been named health and safety supervisor of the commercial nuclear fuel plant.

Supervisors Approve Construction Of County Office Building

ford, Director of the Tenth District of Court Services Unit, appeared before the board to make them aware that a District Office serving an eight county area will locate in Appomattox as soon as office space is available. Murphy's work is directly involved with the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court and a local J & D probation officer will also locate here.

Murphy stated that LEAA federal and state funding will pay 95% of cost of equipment and furnishings for a District J & D Probation Office and that Appomattox County would be asked to supplement the LEAA Grant taking up the remaining 5%. The board agreed to pay the 5% provided the LEAA Grant is approved.

Upon receipt of a request by letter the Board of Supervisors endorsed the "Bike-A-Thon" planned to raise money for Cancer Research to be held on October 14th from 1:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. The "Bike-A-Thron" was quite successful last year and will again travel the same route this year.

W. S. Slagle presented to the board a resolution from the Appomattox County Planning Commission concerning the protection and zoning of the Appomattox Court House National Historic Park. This resolution was presented at the request of the supervisors at their last regular meeting.

Board members felt that HR Bill 6499 showed interest in putting a new building needed for the inspector in order to put the program into effect. The board approved the purchase of needed items as requested.

Following further suggested putting an Appomattox County Seal decal-type emblem on the Inspector's truck, on all landfill equipment and on any other county owned equipment they so desire. This met with the approval of the board.

The Board of Supervisors has requested that Sam Kerr, Commonwealth Attorney, draw up proper resolution for adoption by the supervisors of a Building Code for the County of Appomattox.

The office of the Building Inspector will be located in the Council Meeting room of the Town of Appomattox on a temporary basis and Mr. Bowling can be reached there.

In other business, the board agreed to pay $100 annually, for as long as needed, to American Legion Post 104 to buy gas for the eternal flame for the Veteran's Memorial in the Court House Square.

"College Night" Set For September 27 at E. C. Glass

The Guidance Department at Appomattox County High School would like to urge high school juniors and seniors and their parents to attend "College Night' at E. C. Glass on Sept. 27, 1973 beginning at 7:30 p.m. This annual event will provide an opportunity for parents and students to meet with representatives of most Virginia colleges and a number of out-of-state institutions. Special training and technical schools such as electronics, cosmotology, nursing, ship building apprentice schools, and business will be represented.

The meeting will begin with a very short general session followed by three thirty minute sessions giving time to visit the representatives of three different schools. Any questions concerning "College Night" should be directed to Mrs. Harriet James or Mrs. Pauline F. DePew, counselors at the high school. Telephone number: 352-7415.

Enrollment In County Schools Reaches 2,542

plans were made to accommodate only 100 students in the program with approximately 80 of these scheduled to attend Kindergarten at Oakville.

With the opening of the school session, 107 students were enrolled at Oakville averaging 27 pupils for each of the four teachers employed and only one teacher-aide to assist in the entire program. On a recommendation by Lloyd Walton, Division Superintendent, board members voted to employ, at the expense of the School Board, two teacher-aides to be placed at Oakville on a temporary basis.

Supt. Walton, at the request of Cecil Tillery, Jr., principal at Appomattox County High School, recommended that an additional teacher is needed at the high school and the addition of one more teacher would enable each high school teacher to have a "planning period" each day and this would be a great asset to all teachers. The recommendation was approved by the board.

After much consideration, board members voted to adopt the "Procedure for Adjusting Grievances" that has been adopted by the School board of Education.

The Town of Appomattox had previously requested that a five-foot right-of-way on road to Thomasville Furniture Industries (Virginia Avenue- extended(along property owned by the School Board be donated to the Town in order to give a 40 ft. right-of-way into Thomasville property. The board voted to donate the 5' right-of-way (approximately 310 feet) and will sign the appropriate papers when they are proposed. The Town of Appomattox will pay for the survey, deed and etc.

In other business before the board, a request from William G. Fore, Virginia Army National Reserve, was received asking that the Appomattox County High School be made available for use in case it was needed for emergencies of any kind. The request was approved.

Supt. Walton reported to the board that he had that day appeared before the Board of Supervisors to submit a report on the financial status of the School Board and to request monthly allocations. He also gave a progress report on the new high school and on the Oakville kindergarten program making the supervisors aware that less than $1,000.00 had been spent to renovate Oakville School and most everything purchased can be used in the kindergarten program at Appomattox Primpary School in the next school year.

In other business the board approved the Athletic Program for the 1973-74 school season.

Am I Covered

Q. I own a travel trailer which I park on a vacatin lot I own in another part of the state from my home. Can you tell me for what I am covered under my Homeowners policy with regard to the trailer, and if I have automatic coverage for these things or do I have to pay an extra premium?

A - You would find coverage under Coverage C - Unscheduled Personal property. The perils insured against are those listed in the policy under Coverage C but you should note trailers are not insured against theft. The policy also limits coverage to a maximum of $500, probably insufficient to adequately protect most trailers of this kind. Your legal liability would be insured under Section II since your trailer would not be excluded by the "motor vehicle exclusion" except while it is being towed. You should discuss with your agent the advisability of insuring your trailer under your automobile policy.

Q - Is my trailer covered under my Homeowners policy when it is parked on a rented campground lot? If not, how do I get coverage?

A-The answer to the question would apply to this question as well.

Q-Are mini-bikes covered against theft and other losses under a Homemakers policy? If they are, can you tell me under what circumstances? Also, will you specify the exclusions in the policy?

A - There is no coverage for "motorized vehicles", which a mini-bike would be considered. You will find the exclusion under Coverage C - Unscheduled Personal roperty. You would limited liability coverage - if the accident occurred on your premises if the bike is not subject to motor vehicle registration because it is used exclusively on the resident premises. This is highly unlikely in most instances. We would suggest covering the mini-bike under an automobile policy.
